

V e s s e l

Stewart Hearn (1963 -)

Fenland Lamp

Circa: 2014

2014

United Kingdom

Glass

'Fenland Lamp' is a unique collection of lights by the British artist, Stewart Hearn.

The colour combinations explored in the Fenland Lamps are derived from the hues, patterns and textures found in the dramatic landscapes of the southern Lake District.

Available in steel, yellow amber, olive and aubergine.

Small 76cm high £800

Large 92cm high £1100

Please contact the gallery for details of the lights currently available. The artist can also create pieces to commission, please contact the gallery for further information.

Literature:

Hand Blown Glass

Artist description:

Hearn is a highly respected Cambridgeshire based glassmaker and designer. He has established a professional practice of over twenty-five years, developed during his experience of working with some of Britain's best master glassmakers. In 2002, he co-founded and is now sole owner of London Glassworks.

Using his accumulation of specialist knowledge, creative passion and a philosophy that celebrates the value of traditional glassmaking skills, Hearn creates quality glass which captures his unique identity. The colour combinations explored in his work are derived from the tones, hues, patterns and textures found in the dramatic landscapes of the southern Lake District.