

V e s s e l

Christopher Ramsey (1964 -)

Duck Collection

Circa: 2013

2013

United States

Glass

The price shown is for one duck.

A master at creating animal forms, the Duck Collection allows Ramsey infinite explorations of combining texture and colour whilst also retaining a sense of humour. These feathered friends are some of our more inquisitive and amusing water fowl, not only is each piece unique in decoration, their range of facial expressions is equally intriguing.

From 28-32cm long

Literature:

Unique

Artist description:

Christopher was born in the USA and educated at the University of Notre Dame and California College of Arts (San Francisco). He has been active at Pilchuck (WA, USA) as well as Orrefors, Kosta Boda and Åfors Glassworks as both a Designer and Master Blower.

Inspired by nature, spending his youth “with bugs, birds and berries” Ramsey is a master at creating animal forms. His ‘Duck Collection’ allows infinite explorations of combining texture and colour whilst also retaining a sense of humour. Each feathered friend is unique in decoration, their range of facial expressions is equally intriguing.