

Ludvig Löfgren (1972 -)

Old School Collection

Circa: 2012

2012

Sweden

Glass

35 x 0 cm (13³/₄ x 0 inches)

With his extensive knowledge of glass and artistic talent, Ludvig Löfgren transcends many boundaries in the Kingdom of Crystal with its wealth of fine traditions. He is inspired by numerous genres – everything from the fashion world to tattooing techniques, B Movies to 70's punk.

The Old School collection definitely has its roots in the tattoo parlour. Incorporating the classic rambling rose entwined around each piece, they are also exceptionally romantic.

Vase 35cm H

Literature:

Limited edition of 200

Artist description:

Löfgren quickly established himself as one of the boldest artistic talents in the world of art glass expressing himself with attitude and confidence leaving an imprint of his style on all his creations.

Ludvig studied both art and painting before becoming a student at the renowned Orrefors School of Glass in the beginning of the 1990s. He continued his education at Pilchuck Glass School in the United States before returning to Sweden to study at the College of Arts and Design in Stockholm, specialising in glass and ceramics.

Löfgren has an extensive knowledge of craftsmanship gained through endless hours in the studio working tirelessly on his craft. He draws inspiration from many sources; everything from the fashion world to tattooing techniques.