

VESSEL GALLERY

LONDON

Venini Lighting (1925 -)

Esprit

Circa: 1970

1970

Italy

Glass

The Esprit collection was produced by Venini during the 1970s and offered an exciting blend of creativity and glass-making prowess combined with a meticulous and sensitive investigation of lighting technology.

Color: Crystal/black, Crystal/crystal, Crystal/yellow amber, Crystal/Milk-white

Pendant sizes:

60cm diameter

80cm diameter

100cm diameter

150cm diameter

200cm diameter

Also available wall, floor and table lamps, please contact the gallery for more information.

Artist description:

The largest and most successful of the Murano glass furnaces, still in operation in Venice today.

Established in 1925 by Paolo Venini, Venini embraced Modernism trends in art and architecture with their new designs in elegant shapes and colours. Venini was also known for enlisting various designers in their projects, bringing new ideas to Murano. These included; Napoleon Martinuzzi, Tommaso Buzzi, Carlo Scarpa, Gio Ponti, Tyra Lundgren and Fulvio Bianconi. Venini still produces a beautiful line of new and classic art vases and lighting every year.