

V e s s e l

Hsiao-Chi Tsai & Kimiya Yoshikawa

Blooming Spark

Circa: 2013

2013

London

Acrylic

55 x 100 cm (21<sup>5</sup>/<sub>16</sub> x 39<sup>3</sup>/<sub>16</sub> inches)

Tsai and Yoshikawa come from textile and sculpture backgrounds respectively. Their joint practice has cumulated in some extraordinary pieces that marry unexpected materials such as neoprene, acrylics and UV paint with lighting and installation. Their bold use of colour and modern sensibility combine to produce joyful, imaginative work. The pieces are contradictory being synthetic, organic and hand made all at the same time.

Literature:

Limited Edition of 9 + 3AP

Artist description:

London-based artists Hsiao-Chi Tsai (1981, Taiwan) and Kimiya Yoshikawa (1980, Japan) Tsai and Yoshikawa come from textile and sculpture backgrounds respectively. Their joint practice has cumulated in some extraordinary pieces that marry unexpected materials such as neoprene, acrylics and UV paint with lighting and installation. Their bold use of colour and modern sensibility combine to produce joyful, imaginative work. The pieces are contradictory being synthetic, organic and hand made all at the same time.